

Gifts in Wills

Information for Solicitors

All you need to include a gift to Dress for Success Sydney in your client's Will is our ABN (ABN 86 294 993 663), and registered name, Dress for Success Sydney.

Suggested wording

We do not specify the wording you should use as we are not legal professionals. However, below are a couple of examples for the most common types of gifts we receive.

Residual Gift

This is the most effective way to leave a gift to Dress for Success Sydney in a Will. It is a gift of what remains after provisions have been made for loved ones. A residuary gift will keep up with inflation. It will mean any gift will achieve as much in our projects in the future as your client would like it to now.

An example of a residual gift wording may be:

I give _____% of the residue of my Estate to Dress for Success Sydney (ABN 86 294 993 663) for its general purposes, free of all duties, and declare that the receipt of an executive officer at the time, shall be sufficient discharge of my executor's duty.

Pecuniary Gift

A pecuniary gift is a fixed sum of money to be left to Dress for Success Sydney. This type of gift is incredibly generous and much appreciated, however will not keep up with inflation.

An example of a pecuniary gift wording may be:

I give $_____ to Dress for Success Sydney (ABN 86 294 993 663) for its general purposes, free of all duties, and declare that the receipt of an executive officer at the time, shall be sufficient discharge of my executor's duty.

Whilst free to direct their gift toward a particular purpose, we suggest you encourage your client not to limit their description because we may not be able to fulfil their request if it is too specific. To have financial flexibility in the future and ensure gifts have the greatest impact where they're most needed, our preference is for these gifts to be directed to 'the general purposes of Dress for Success Sydney'.
